GIN FOR BACKACHE

Backache Means Kidueyache.—Newly-Perfected Prescription Given for Kidneys and Bladder.

Gin, in some form has been known as a kidney and bladder remedy for years. It is said, by excellent authority, that it reaches its highest efficiency as a remedy for weak or disordered kidneys and bladder when used in the following formula: "Six ounces good pure gin one-half ounce fluid the first ounce fluid the first ounce fluid the first ounce fluid the formula. These ingredients pran he bought and wixed at home, or any good prescription druggist can put up the formula. For best results take one to two teaspoonfuls three times a day, after each meal.

Such symptoms as backache, rheumatic pains in the joints, soreness in hip or groin, frequent, scanty or painful urination, highly-colored urine, dizziness, etc., should be attended to promptly, as Chronic rheumatism, Eright's disease and diabetes are apt to develop.

The Finance Committee is the only committee of the City Bouncil which regularly holds secret sessions, and although statements have been given to the press at the close of each meeting, as to the various papers recommended for adoption or rejection no mention has been made of the Cunningham affair, nor did it become a matter of public knowledge at the City Hall until yesterday morning, when friends of the Collector, in their effort to prevent the report of Ac-city Hall until yesterday morning, when friends of the Collector, in their effert to prevent the report of Accountant Crenshaw being sent to the Council, and so becoming a public document, themselves let the secret out. But the Finance Committee had already taken action, transmitting the report to the Council, after a much more drastic resolution had been first toned down and then rejected altogether.

In order, however, that the report of the Special Accountant should not merely be received and filed without reading, as is the custom with the usual perfunctory reports of city officers, the Finance Committee by resolution directed Chairman Pollard tocall for the reading of the paper in the Council, and to be prepared with further facts and figures in the event that more information was desired the Finance Committee, however, made no recomendation in regard to the matter.

The Democrats, he pursued, are sorry the negroes quit voting. He told of a party leader coming to Richmond and complaining that the negroes in his county were not registering. When the remark was made that this should be good news, he replied: "How in the hell can we count them unless they are registered?"

He closed with an appeal for support for the "party of Jefferson, Madison, Monroe, Roosevelt and Taft."

BREATHITT COUNTY ISBIG, ARMED CAMP

Iting to precipitate election trouble, are a lie. It has been known that the Republicans have determined to defeat a fair election and to resort to any fraud they could conceive in order to defeat the will of the people. "A large majority of them are supporting the nominees of the Democratic party. The Democratic ticket is composed of clean men."

The present trouble began last week, when a band of men took the ballots for next Tuesday's election from a local bank and departed with them in the Airection of Crockettsville. Sheriff Crawford pursued the men, but returned empty-handed. An armed force, declaring themselves supporters of Judge Redwine, took possession of the court-touse Saturday night, but hostilities have been prevented thus far by a truce between the opposing Democrats and Hepublicans.

The principal struggle in the campaign is over the office of circuit ludge. The candidates for the office are Judge Adams, Republican, the incumbent. An important signed is also the prohibition question, and Judge Adams, it is alleged, has been particularly severe on the "blind tiger" element.

TWO NEW OFFICERS SWORN IN:

McClung, Treasurer; Andrews, Director of Mint.

WASHINGTON, D. C., November 1.—
Lee McClung, of Tennessee, was sworn in as Treasurer of the United States this morning, and A. Platt Andrews, who recently returned from Europe with Senator Aldrich, of the Senate Finance Committee and the monatary commission, of which he was an excommission of which he was an expert attacle, took the oaths as director of the Mint. The ceremony of inducting the two officials took place in the once of Secretary MacVeaginand was wonessed by a number of heads of bureaus and chiefs of divisions and bureaus of the Treasury Department.

James M. Fitzpatrick, executive clerk of the appointment division of the Treasury, administered the oath to the new officials, and after a round of handshaking, in which they were wished much success in their new work, both left the room to take up their new duties.

While the new officials were being inducted into office the colossal task of counting Uncle San's wealth was being begin by a corps of experts.

Accounting for Cash.

The occasion for this work is the retirement of Charles H. Treat, of New York, as treasurer. As his successor, Mr. McClung, wishes to know that he has all the valuables which have been certified to him are in the vaults of the Treasury before he gives his predecessor a receipt, the examination has to be made at once.

Throughout this morning the experts worked hard and, according to expectations, it will be several months
